Cautionary notice to shareholders

In accordance with rule number 53(6) of the Dar es Salaam Stock Exchange (“DSE”) Rules, companies shall publish a cautionary announcement as soon as they have a reasonable degree of certainty that the financial results for the period to be reported upon next will be at least 25% below the financial results for the corresponding previous period.

For the company, a number of factors are expected to negatively impact the results for the six months ending 30th September 2020. These include the impact from barring customers in accordance with the requirements of the Tanzania Communication Regulatory Authority, as well as the effects of the COVID-19 pandemic on the economy and our business. Given these factors, and following a detailed financial and operating review, the Board expects that the company’s results for the six months ending 30th September 2020 will be impacted. Further, it is expected that operating profit for the six months ending 30th September 2020 will be at least 25% lower than the operating profit of TZS 75.5 billion reported for the prior year corresponding six month period.

The company expects to publish its interim results for the six month ending 30th September 2020 by no later than 13th November 2020.

Shareholders are advised to exercise caution when dealing in the company’s securities on the DSE until such time that the interim results for the six months ending 30th September 2020 are released.

The financial information on which this cautionary statement is based has not been reviewed by the company’s auditors.
