MR. BENJAMIN DZOBOKU ASSUMES OFFICE AS NEW MANAGING DIRECTOR OF REPUBLIC BANK (GHANA) PLC

Monday, 18th July, 2022 - Mr. Benjamin Dzuboku has officially assumed post as the Managing Director of Republic Bank (Ghana) PLC on Friday, 15th July, 2022. This follows the Bank of Ghana's approval of his appointment to succeed Mr. Farid Antar, who officially retired from the service of the Bank effective Thursday, 14th July, 2022.

Prior to his new appointment, Mr. Dzuboku was the Chief Operating Officer of Republic Bank Ghana where he was responsible for the following functions: Finance & Strategy, International Trade, Treasury, Administration & Premises, Cash Management, Custody Services, Internal Control, Portfolio Management, Centralized Support and the Bank's subsidiary, Republic Trust Limited Company. He has over the years held several positions of responsibility at the Bank including being the Internal Auditor; Financial Controller; Treasurer and General Manager - Retail Banking (including branch network). He later moved to the position of General Manager - Finance and Strategy before being appointed the Bank's Chief Operating Officer.

Mr. Dzuboku joined HFC Bank (Ghana) Ltd (now Republic Bank (Ghana) PLC) in January 2007 as the Head, Risk Management from SG-SSB where he had commenced his banking career as an Internal Auditor. Prior to this, he worked with Pannell Kerr Forster (PKF Ghana) as a Senior Auditor.

Mr. Dzuboku has strong academic and professional qualifications underpinning his achievements. These include being a Chartered Accountant (ICA, Ghana) and memberships of the Chartered Institute of Taxation (CIT, Ghana); Institute of Financial Accountants (UK) (fellow) and Certified Fraud Examiners (CFE, USA). He holds Masters' Degrees in Business Administration (MBA) (Financial Management) (St. Clements University, UK) and in Public Administration (MPA) (GIMPA, Ghana).

Mr. Dzuboku has also participated in several Executive Management programmes including the Senior Executive Programme in Leadership from Harvard Business School and Corporate Governance & Compliance and High Performance Management Excellence.

Mr. Dzuboku is expected to continue the transformation process started by his predecessors with the view to growing Republic Bank (Ghana) PLC into a top flight Bank in Ghana.

Mr. Dzoboku has assured the Board of Directors, Executives, Staff and Customers of the Bank that he will continue with the major strides made by his predecessors and the strategic path adopted by the Bank.

The Board of Directors, Executive Management, Staff and Stakeholders welcome Mr. Benjamin Dzoboku to this new appointment and pledge their support to him.//End.
