

BRIEF PROFILE – ALHAJI ALHASSAN YAKUBU

Mr. Yakubu graduated from the University of Ghana Business School with a B.Sc. Administration, Banking & Finance major in 1990, among the first batch to major in Banking & Finance at Legon.

He also attended and obtained a certificate from the Financial Institution Analysis School of the Federal Reserve Bank, Washington DC, USA among many other Courses.

His working career has been mainly in the Banking Industry having commenced my career with Merchant Bank Ghana Limited in September 1991 as an assistant banking officer before moving to the Bank of Ghana in November the same year.

He worked for almost 13 years in Banking Supervision (Bank of Ghana) where I attained the level of Manager and team leader, supervising major Banks as well as Non-Bank Financial Institutions.

He was a member of many committees and projects including the Banking Law review Committee, Records management and disposal committee.

He has deep knowledge and experience in Financial Institution Analysis, Corporate Governance, Credit Management, Treasury and investment management, Internal controls, computer audit and security, compliance, evaluation and monitoring.

He carried out varied assignments at the Banking Supervision Department including leading on-site examination teams to examine some major commercial banks in Ghana. I also participated in investigations and other specialized assignments. I was involved in drafting sections of the Banking Supervision Departments' Examination Manual and played a vital role in many policy initiatives at the Banking Supervision Dept.

Currently he is a private Businessman.
