

Please find below short profiles of the new Directors and new Head of Finance:

Mr Yeo Ziobeieton

Yeo Ziobeieton is a commercially astute and highly skilled Executive with significant experience in general management, global marketing, operations, communications, brand development and product management. Yeo has a strong track record of driving change, innovation and business improvement with extensive business start-up, turnaround and transformation experience across the African region.

Yeo has 14 years' experience with Unilever Cote D'ivoire, Dakar, Durban, Kenya and South Africa. He has held a number of general management and marketing positions at the company most recently as the managing Director of the 16 countries of Unilever in Francophone West Africa and prior to that as Senior marketing director for Africa Foods at Unilever in South Africa Durban. Prior to that he spent 4 years in Nairobi Kenya as Senior Marketing Director for Africa for Foods and oral care brand at Unilever Kenya.

Mr Yeo Ziobeieton has been appointed as the new Managing Director of the Company with effect from 1st January 2017

Yeo holds a degree in marketing, communications and general management from the ESCA Business School in Abidjan. He also studied Business English at Brighton University

Mr Yaw Nsarkoh

Yaw Nsarkoh, was appointed as Unilever Nigeria's Managing Director effective 1st January 2014. Until this appointment, he served as the Managing Director, Unilever East and Southern Africa based in Kenya. He has served as a Strategic Assistant to Unilever Executive member and President of Unilever Asia, Africa, Central and Eastern Europe based in the United Kingdom. He also served at various times as Marketing Director Unilever Ghana, African Regional Brand Manager Laundry Regional Innovation Centre, Unilever South Africa, Production Manager Unilever Ghana etc.

Mr. Nsarkoh holds an Honors Degree in Chemical Engineering from University of Science and Technology, Kumasi, Ghana and a Post Graduate Diploma in Management from Henley Management College, Henley-on- Thames, United Kingdom.

He is a member of Ghana Institution of Engineers and a Director of Changing Lives Endowment Fund (CLEF) in Ghana etc. He is a regular speaker on business issues, specifically Marketing and Leadership at public fora. His hobbies include walking, cycling, and civil society advocacy. He has a special interest in: development economics, management and leadership philosophy.

Yaw takes on the role of Executive Vice President Unilever Ghana Nigeria Cluster on 1st January, 2017.

Mrs Adesola Sotande-Peters

Mrs. Adesola Sotande-Peters is a Finance Executive (FCCA) with a strong Business Finance leaning and with over 22 years varied professional experience (spanning in various organizations such as British Broadcasting Corporation (BBC) UK, Informa Group UK, Openwave Telecoms UK, Diageo Plc (Guinness Nigeria Plc, East African Breweries Limited (Kenya), and Guinness Cameroon SA) where she has held various senior finance roles in commercial/strategic finance, financial management consultancy/analysis, with a strong focus on people development/mentoring. She holds a bachelor degree in Business Administration and Economics from Richmond College, The American International University in London, she also has an MBA for finance professionals from Manchester Business School. She is a fellow of the Association of Certified Chartered Accountants (FCCA) and member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Nigeria (ICAN).

She was appointed to the Board of Unilever Nigeria Plc. in January, 2015 and responsible as the CFO for Unilever Nigeria to proactively provide strategic finance leadership to ensure optimal allocation of the company's resources in the planning and execution of the business strategy to create and maximise shareholders value.

Ms. Elizabeth Donkoh

Ms Elizabeth Donkoh holds a Bachelor's degree in Business Administration – Banking and Finance, and currently writing ICA Final level. She joined Unilever Ghana Limited in 1994 and has ranked through various positions.

Elizabeth has worked in various Finance roles and has also led a number of Finance Projects within Ghana and across Africa. She had also acted as Company Secretary for Unilever Ghana Limited. She has a lot of experience in Financial Management and Business Partnering.

She possesses leadership skills to drive effective strategy execution as well as strong results across the business. Proven success on defining and executing business strategy, leading teams to high performance culture and a strong promoter of continues improvement.

Her hobbies include reading and handling of church leadership activities.